PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Recent Diploma graduate in Information and Communication Technology from Taita Taveta National Polytechnic with practical experience in website development, AI-assisted workflows, digital content creation, technical support, and career services. Skilled in developing responsive web applications, creating educational and marketing content using Canva, and supporting digital operations within education and startup environments. Passionate about Artificial Intelligence, Educational Technology (EdTech), website development, SEO, digital marketing, and leveraging technology to improve learning outcomes. Currently expanding my front-end development expertise through FreeCodeCamp's Responsive Web Design Certification, having completed the final assessment and awaiting the certification result. A proactive, fast learner with excellent problem-solving, communication, and organizational skills who thrives in remote and collaborative environments.
